

Name _____

NOUN CASES

Read pages 56-57 in the white Grammar book. You may use the book to help you answer the following Questions.

Case is the form or use of a _____ or _____ to show its relation to other words in a sentence.

Nominative case usually shows relation to the _____ of the sentence.

Write your own sentence using a noun in the Nominative case.

Objective Case usually shows relation to the _____ of the sentence.

Write your own sentence using a noun in the Objective case.

Possessive Case shows the relationship of _____, _____ or _____.

Write your own sentence using a noun in the Possessive case.

The office of a word is it's _____ or _____.

_____ is a change in word form to show a change in its use or meaning.

Name the three kinds of inflection. _____ \