

Sixth Grade Language Arts – Composition

How beautiful is the rain, the welcome rain!

Continue this text, in a poem or a tale.

(You are highly encouraged to write poetically – that is, I would encourage you to use some of the poetic devices we have been learning about. They can help you to paint a picture with your words, so that yours own writing feels lively and colorful, much like the authors and poets whose works we read in school!)