

Lesson 46

OBJECTIVES:

1. To understand the use of the subjunctive mood in clauses after verbs of fearing.
2. To understand the rule for sequence of tenses.

LESSON FACTS

1. An affirmative clause after a verb of fearing is introduced by .....
2. A negative clause after a verb of fearing is introduced by ..... or .....
3. If the verb in the main clause is in the present, future or future perfect tense, the verb in the clause after a verb of fearing is in the ..... tense of the subjunctive if its action .....
....., and in the ..... tense of subjunctive if its action .....
.....
4. If the verb in the main clause is in the imperfect, perfect or pluperfect tense, the verb in a clause after a verb of fearing is in the ..... tense of the subjunctive if its action .....
....., and in the ..... tense of the subjunctive if its action .....
.....
5. Give the Latin for these words.
forum ..... ear ..... no one .....
clothing ..... building ..... watch .....
violence ..... faith ..... sight .....
eye ..... strength .....

DRILLS

DRILL I.—Give the forms indicated.

1. The third person singular, present subjunctive active perterreō ..... armō ..... perficiō .....

2. The second person plural, imperfect subjunctive active quaerō ..... orō ..... cōspiciō .....

3. The first person plural, perfect subjunctive active cōsistō ..... sentiō ..... crēdō .....

4. The third person plural, pluperfect subjunctive passive premō ..... recipiō ..... compleō .....

DRILL II.—Translate into Latin.

1. I fear that they are coming. ....
2. I fear that they have come. ....
3. I feared that they were coming. ....
4. I feared that they had come. ....
5. I fear that they are not coming. ....
6. I fear that they have not come. ....
7. I feared that they were not coming. ....
8. I feared that they had not come. ....
9. I know that they are coming. ....
10. I knew that they had come. ....

DRILL III.—Translate into Latin.

1. He hopes that our men will soon be here, for he fears that the enemy are preparing to attack us.

.....
 .....

2. In order that we might learn the nature of the region, we sent men to observe the enemy's camp.

.....
 .....

3. You are trying to persuade me to sail with you; but I advise you to depart alone. ....

.....
 .....